Different artistic disciplines merge at Prachtwerk. Here you can enjoy the creative diversity of Neukölln in a relaxed atmosphere and be inspired by the projects before heading to the grand finale.

Stopover

ALFRED-SCHOLZ-PLATZ

THE ALEPH - A SIGNAL DIRECTLY ON YOUR WAY

Fri 19:00 until Sun 19:00

On the way to the next stop, a very special discovery awaits you in the centre of Alfred-Scholz-Platz: the Aleph. This fascinating 7-metre-high signal project by Paula Vidal was specially designed for public spaces and is impossible to miss. With its reflective surface, the walk-in installation is a shining point in the festival area that you should definitely not miss.

Stop 4

CANK , KARL-MARX-STR. 95

11 PROJECTS - 2 PERSPECTIVES - 39 ARTISTS

Fri 19:00 - 24:00 | Sat 12:00 - 24:00 | Sun 12:00 - 19:00

Get ready for the crowning glory of your 'No Limits' route: the Cank! As a young venue for Neukölln's creative scene, the former C&A building offers a dynamic platform for art and culture. Here, in the midst of urban vibes, you can experience how artists use a wide variety of forms of expression to inspire and challenge. Let yourself be carried away by the energy of the place and discover innovative projects that push the boundaries of convention.

The Cank is more than just a location - it is the perfect place to reflect on the impressions of the day and end the tour with new perspectives.
